

- 1  How
The Left Used Alinsky's Rules And Radicals to take Over The White House...
AND WHAT WE NEED TO DO TO GET THEM OUT!
- 2  Conservative Rules for
Radicals
- 3

Welcome, we're glad you're here!

we've done everything possible to include pertinent information to show you where it began where it is going and how it infiltrated our backyards while we weren't looking..

Additional information can be found via internet by searching topic title and subject name reading books, articles, papers etc listed as sources

Portions of our program are based upon hypothetical scenario's / situations, those portions will be clearly identified

Our program is largely interactive/discussion based, the more each person participates, the more everyone will get out of it.

To ensure fairness to all, please :

1. Be respectful of others when contributing.
2. Turn your cell phones off or to the vibrate setting.
3. Take private discussions to another area.
4. Keep contributions directly relevant to the discussion.

Please remain mindful that some individuals caught within this elaborate web don't realize they are ensnared within it.

Unfortunately, sometimes really good people get stuck in really bad things, it doesn't make ALL of them bad, in some cases they are merely uninformed or misinformed of the dangers, and have been lured /mislead by others.

On the other hand, some really bad people, are involved in really bad things,
They work quietly almost completely undetected in the shadows, like spiders, effectively weaving intricate webs, one string, one layer, one victim at a time, always afraid of being exposed to the light.

Our goal is to shed as much light as possible on those individuals, as well as the web they've been weaving around the American people for more then 60 years.
We're here to provide information, show you how to use it, and direct you on where to find more. Our goal is to arm you with knowledge, because knowledge is POWER.

WARNING:

Disruptive, confrontational, or adversarial individuals will be asked to leave.

Those wishing to debate and / or argue the points made, are invited to do so in a forum of their own. They are not invited, encouraged, or welcome to do so at this one. We reserve the right to have any individual engaged in behavior seen as disruptive or distracting to any individual presenting or attending this program. We do not ask for or receive payment for our time/services in any way, nor from any individual, organization, group, or business. No portion(s) of this program may be copied, recorded, taped, reproduced, quoted, used, or referenced without written consent from presenters.

- Father of community organizing. Born in Chicago in 1909, grew up poor in the Jewish slums of Chicago, Alinsky's Ideals rose in the 1930's during the height of The Great Depression. While Chicago was controlled by the "Kelly-Nash Political Machine and heir to Al Capone's Empire"
- Saul Completed a graduate degree in Criminology from the University Of Chicago, but his "real Education" came from his work on the streets of Chicago.
- He ingratiated himself with members of Chicago's infamous Al Capone Gang to study "gang behavior" from the "INSIDE".
- His conclusion was that Criminal Activity. Was a symptom of poverty and, powerlessness.
- (1a) Saul was heavily involved with a lot of youth committees.
- (1b) Saul worked at Joliet Prison
- Sound Familiar?
- How many of our current Presidents friends, advisors, or influences have been in prison themselves, are criminals, or have the ties to criminals or prison oriented influences?
- Van Jones- The "Green Jobs Czar Glenn Beck exposed who than later resigned in the middle of the night on a Saturday.
- Valarie Jarred- Obama's "Best friend advisor, and Social Secretary who has allowed several very serious security breeches at the White House or during events.
- Toney Rezco, Real Estate Developer in Chicago.
- Bill Ayers & his lovely wife Bernadine Dorn, Home grown terrorists- (We'll tell you more about them in a little bit) just to name a few, there are many more.
- Saul also worked for a man named "Clifford Shaw" at the institute of "Juvenile Research", Shaw assigned Saul to the "Back of the Yards" which was an immense slum sitting in the back of Chicago's giant Union Stock Yards Complex.
- This was the setting for Upton Sinclair's Book "The Jungle" Shaw assigned Saul to learn the causes of ... what else?
- "Juvenile Delinquency"
- 2 • Herb March- Labor Organizer
- Wages for those working in the back of the yards were cut 3 times in one year, which understandably led to a great desire for some sense of security.
- Saul approached the labor movement and shared his dream of organizing. ALL sections of the community, in a way that enabled them to, by their own actions determine or control their own DESTINY.

- Saul said "If you ever have an undo concentration of power in one sector of our society or an undo concentration of wealth in one sector, the whole democratic system will collapse internally."
- The Back of the Yards Council-1939
- Saul envisioned an Organization or Organizations- Neighborhood groups, small businesses, Labor Unions, and most of all Catholic Church.
- He was largely helped by the following people in this endeavor;
- Joe Mekan- An Irish American Youth Organizer with strong ties to the Catholic Church. At the time, Labor Unions were viewed as communist.
- Bishop Bernard Sheill- Catholic Leader in Chicago who would work with Labor Orgs.
- Back of the Yards was comprised of over 100 existing organizations.
- July 14th, 1939- First Back of the Yards Council Meeting. This first meeting was Revolutionary in America, it showed us the way to Community Organizing.
- July 16th, 1939- Massive Labor Rally with John L. Lewis and Bishop Bernard Sheill one day after the rally the Armour Plant conceded to recognize the Union.
- United Bishops and Labor Unions gave legitimacy to Back of the Yards Council.
- John L. Lewis influenced Saul Alinsky in a lot of ways-
- Lewis understood conflict in that ERA.
- Understood mass organization of numbers of people meant power
- Ed Chambers= Industrial Areas Foundation Saul got his vision of the world, Lewis taught him the universals of organizing "In all

- 1 • actions is an inevitable reaction, that every positive has a negative, the kind of stuff we teach at 10 day training today."
 - The first IAF Board Meeting was August 24th, 1940.
 - In 1959 Saul Alinsky moved on to the "Woodlawn organization".
 - The Woodlawn Organization Organized Churches for Civil rights in Chicago.
 - Challenged James Daley (Chicago Mayor)
 - In 1960's – Race Riots and Kodak.
 - Rochester Area council of Churches gathered $100,000 and brought Alinsky in.
 - Faith Intigration God Hope Trust Fight= Black Power
 - Malcom X endorsed Saul Alinsky
 - Ed Chambers was assigned by Alinsky to be the lead organizer of FIGHT
 - FIGHT Headquarters-wanted a Confrontational title!
 - Their belief was that "people didn't have a right to welfare but had a right to a job"
 - Saul said, A company has a social responsibility to it's community and stock holders.
 - Kodak and FIGHT worked out an agreement –Kodak reneged
 - Saul bought Kodak stocks on behalf of FIGHT and ruled them by proxy. He said, "The only contribution Eastman Kodak has made to race relations was the invention of color film"
 - Rev. Florence set the time line and then used their massive organization to force Kodak back to the bargaining table.
 - Ken Howard- Foreman Kodak Executive – Saul Alinsky was a "Necessary Evil"
 - In the late 1960's Saul Alinsky became a folk hero to many College aged kids. He challenged them to move from demonstrating in the streets to organizing people in their communities.
 - Saul Alinsky said "you don't have a tougher, harder more realistic operator than Paul in organizing Christianity. If Paul hadn't come around to organize the Christian Church,

Christ would have been another guy h 1969- Ed Chambers and Saul Alinsky set up a training institute for radicals who want to be Community Organizers.

- 1970- Saul Alinsky concluded that American's poor must align themselves with the middle class for if they fail to build alliances with them they will move to the right. Maybe they will anyway but lets not let that happen by default.
- anging on a cross."
- 2 • On June 12th, 1972 just six months after finishing his Rules for Radicals, Saul Alinsky died of a heart attack in Carmel California on a street corner.

 - While Mr. Alinsky was busy training Americas future Community Organizers, and being paid for forcing Kodak Executives to bargain with the likes of Malcom X and the Black Panthers throughout the 1960's and very early 70's, some other organizers interested in change of their own were moving into the Greater Chicagoland Area, and The New York Times was busy publishing the Cloward-Pivon Stratigy.

Goals must be phrased in general terms like Liberty, Equality, Freedom, Fraternity, "the common good or welfare," "pursuit of happiness" "It's for the Children" or "Social Change".

34  But.....
It's MUCH Bigger Than "The Rules"

35

- 1 • The Cloward-Piven Method:
 - Professors Cloward and Piven stated that if you enroll everybody eligible for welfare and force government to make good on their promises of welfare for the poor, the crisis created would collapse the economy.
 - Named after their first proponents, Richard Andrew Cloward and Frances Fox Piven, and brought into the light in 1966, this method intends to force government to live up to their accepted responsibility, by making individuals who otherwise would not request a handout or welfare, all of a sudden, start demanding everything they are "entitled" to.
- 2 • Published in "The Nation" and under the title "The weight of the Poor: A strategy to end Poverty" it enticed many to see if it would do what it claimed.
 - On September 27, 1970 Richard Cloward told the New York Times that "the poor can only advance when the rest of society is afraid of them", that government uses welfare to control the poor, and that by making all that would qualify for welfare demand every bit they were "entitled to", the ensuing chaos would destroy the system creating riots on the street, and only then, the rest of society "would accept their demands". This really doesn't make any sense unless your purpose is not to help the poor, but to destroy capitalism.

- 1 • Rudy Giuliani exposed these creeps in 1997 when he reformed the welfare system in New York. He clearly realized that it was no accident that his State was bankrupt, and the evidence was their own writings. It seems that they wised up, since they haven't tip their hand again, but the enemies of our Nation use this underhanded technique without mercy.
 - Acorn constantly overloads the voting system with fraudulent voting drive campaigns. They register dead people, children, illegals, felonious convicts, and even cartoon characters (they register Mickey Mouse in Florida). The reason is simple, to allow their candidates to be elected. They have been successful beyond their wildest dreams.
 - Now, their proponents are trying to overload the Health Care system of the United States with 45, 000,000 new patients.
 - When confronted by Joe Wilson about the veracity of the President's statement that illegal immigrants would not be covered, days later he said that they wouldn't, but that they needed to find a way to do it, or fix their citizenship status. They keep saying that this huge white elephant of entitlement program is budget neutral and it would not cost a dime, but the Congressional Budget Office estimates it would cost over $800,000,000,000.00 dollars. When they said that you could keep your own individual plans, they wanted to add a clause fining those who would not join the plan. Bottom line, this messy Health Care business is nothing more than the New Left politicians trying to destroy the American Capitalist system, and for the most part, some who claim to be conservative, are either blind or too dumb to realize that they are being led by the nose.

The education system is also targeted with the Cloward-Piven system. Don't believe me? Aren't illegal aliens offered in state tuition fees to attend college? Does your son or daughter who is an American citizen get cheaper in State tuition fees if he or she decides to go to a school in a different state? The answer is NOT NO, BUT HECK NOOOO!

- 2 • And how about the job market? Another way to weaken the economy of our Nation is by flooding the job market with cheap labor. The influx of cheap labor tears the balance between supply and demand, so now American workers have to charge less for their services. This situation encourages resentment against illegal immigrants and encourages racial discrimination. The liberal's favorite phrase when talking about illegals getting jobs here is that those are jobs that Americans would not do.
- Ralph (raum) Emmanuel, President Obama's Chief of Staff, is a proponent of this method. So is the Secretary of State, Hillary Clinton. That is not a surprise, since her college thesis was about the Alinsky Method, and Cloward and Piven based their method on Alinsky strategies.
- It seems that Cloward-Piven's strategy is alive and well.

"WHY"?

40

Bill Ayers

- 1 Barack Obama's relationship with Bill Ayers will not go away. Ayers and his wife, Bernardine Dohrn were terrorists for the notorious Weather Underground during the turbulent 1960s, turning fugitive when a bomb — designed to kill army officers in New Jersey — accidentally exploded in a New York townhouse. Prior to that, Ayers and his cohorts succeeded in bombing the Pentagon. Ayers and Dohrn remain unrepentant for their terrorist past. Ayers was pictured in a 2001 article for Chicago magazine, stomping on an American flag, and told the New York Times just before 9/11 that the notion of the United States as a just and fair and decent place "makes me want to puke." Although Obama actually launched his political career at an event at Ayers's and Dohrn's home, Obama has dismissed Ayers as just "a guy who lives in my neighborhood," and "not somebody who I exchange ideas from on a regular basis." For his part, Ayers refuses to discuss his relationship with Obama.

1 Weather Underground

A group of young people under the control of agents from Cuba, China, and Vietnam terrorized the Nation by bombing police stations, the Pentagon, organizing strikes and interrupting classes in Universities. They called themselves Weathermen.

In 1969, the Weathermen (later the Weather Underground Organization) released a Statement of Ideology that, for anyone that knows how to read at 12th grade level, would show the blueprint of "how to" destroy the United States.

Here is the bad news: if you look at the history of our education, politics, economics, and worldwide standing, along with today's headlines, you will see an eerie parallel. The history of the United States, over the past 40 plus years, validates the Weather Underground's Ideology Statement. "And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear." Mark 4:9

"Kill all the rich people. Break up their cars and apartments. Bring the revolution home, kill your parents, that's where it's really at." William Ayres

Born on December 26, 1944 of an anti war father, he quickly adopted his father's anti war views.

In the 60's he was a member of the Students for Democratic Society (SDS).

In my travels around the world, I have come to realize that when an organization or a Nation starts using the title of democratic, that organization or nation is everything but democratic. Take for example East Berlin. Demokatische Republik Deutschland, as was it's original name, meant Democratic Republic of Germany; but the city was everything but democratic. Hugo Chavez touts his revolution as a democratic revolution, ask Mark Lloyd, from the Obama administration.

So, when these kids called their organization democratic, you can say that it was Marxist.

In 1968, Ayers became a leader within the organization's Detroit branch of the SDS. Under the name of the Jessy James Gang, his group took the first steps toward becoming the Weather Underground.

²

As time went by, he became even more radicalized, to the point where he acknowledges planting several bombs, to include the Capitol Building, the Pentagon, police stations, etc. He admits these facts in his book "Fugitive Days".

42

AKA. Lorraine Anne Jellins; Sharon Louise Naylor; Karen Lois DeBelius; Mona; Bernardine Rae Ohrnstein She received a Juris Doctor from the University of Chicago Law School in 1967 and went to work for a front for the Communist Party in New York, the National Lawyers Guild. Bernardine Dohrn was one of the regional leaders of the Students for a Democratic Society in the late 60's and a recognized leader of the Weather Underground later on.

Bernadine Dohrn, A lovely, young lady, smart, viewed as attractive by 1969 standards, who had a bright cheerful way of communicating with others, in fact, at the Flint Michigan war council meeting in December 1969, Dohrn raised three fingers simulating a fork, and rallied the troops while referring to the Charles Manson killings of Sharon Tate and the rest of the people in her home at the time, she said, "Dig it, First they killed those pigs, then they ate dinner in the same room with them, they even shoved a fork into a victims stomach" referring to the than pregnant Sharon Tate.

Lets return to those crazy RADICALS, Bill and Bernie...

...and they're band of merry misfits. This group is full of excitement, in fact they've been known to be downright "explosive." What a fantastically "$timulating" crowd! They always give us a lot of "BANG" for our buck!

45  Townhouse where three Weathermen blew themselves up while making explosive to kill Soldiers at Fort Dix

46  Carl Davidson

Carl Davidson:

As a member of Chicagoans Against War on Iraq (CAWI), Davidson help organize the rally where then Senator Obama spoke for the first time against the war in Iraq; and also a member of Progressives for Obama.

Davidson claims that he was one of the primary organizers of the Venceremos Brigades (VB) whose official purpose was to visit Cuba and help harvest sugar cane among the Cubans. Unofficially, the trips were used by Cuban Intelligence to spread propaganda and recruit the naive American youth in order to spy for Cuba. Some of the members of the Students for Democratic Society (SDS), participated in the trips, also receiving special training from representatives from North Vietnam, China, the National Liberation Front (NFL), and Cuban Intelligence.

Davidson visited Cuba again in 1968 to meet with Fidel Castro. Afterwards, he became heavily involved with the SDS, and the Weather Underground.

- Jeff was a member of the weather Underground, yes, little Jeffy was one of those poor misguided "kids" who were out there making "mistakes" oh and bombs blowing up things like police stations, and the Pentagon.
- In 1969 Jeff grew out of his young impetuous activities though and realizing what he's done was wrong, went underground where he stayed until being arrested in 1981.
- For his crimes, of which there where many, he received "probation, and community service."-
- Remember the troops were being put in place,- some of them in high places, very high places that could possibly make decisions on things like, oh say- punishments and sentencing terms for terrorists?
- Today Jeff Jones is a contributing member of society, (That probation reformed him apparently) because he is now the head of "Jeff Jones strategies, a consulting firm where he uses the skills learned during his community organizer and weather Underground days to help local organizations achieve their goals, (what a sweetheart!)

- Oh yea by the way, Jeff Jones? Well you might recall him having been involved with another group, perhaps this one is familiar to you, he is executive Director of -->> (Visual)

48  Mark Lloyd

- Mark Lloyd Chief Diversity Czar, and Officer of the FCC (Federal Communications Commission) LLOYD is an Alinsky Disiple, in 2006 he wrote a book called Prologue to a farse: Communication and Democracy in America, in it he calls for an "all out confrontational movement" against private media. He wants leftist activists, through incessant political pressure- and the government through the creation of a totally untenable operating environment of fees, fines, and regulations- to work together to force the commercial broadcasters out, to be replaced by public broadcasters. LLOYD is specifically targeting Conservative Talk Radio, in 2005 Lloyd said that fundemental policy changes must be made to white dominated media in order to solve the problems society faces.
- The FCC Diversity Czar is an admirer of Hugo Chavez and Communist theory. He does not believe in free speech, or Private property.
- Mark Lloyd is a senior fellow at the Center for American Progress focusing on communications policy issues, including universal service, advanced telecommunications deployment, media concentration and diversity.
- From the fall of 2002 until the summer of 2004, Mr. Lloyd was a Martin Luther King, Jr. visiting scholar at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where he taught communications policy and wrote and conducted research on the relationship between communications policy and strong democratic communities. He also served as the executive director of the Civil Rights Forum on Communications Policy, a non-profit, non-partisan project he co-founded in 1997 to bring civil rights principles and advocacy to the communications policy debate.

49  Valerie Jarrett

- 1 Val is like a sister to Barrack, she is also the Sr. Advisor and Assistant to the President for "Intergovernmental Affairs", or "Protocol"

Prior to her current position, she was Co-Chair of the Obama - Biden Transitional Team and Sr. Advisor to Obama's campaign, Val, well what can we say, she's quite a girl!

Interestingly- our little Valarie also served as Executive Vice President of Habitat for 12 years, she served 8 years before that in Chicago Government as Deputy Corporation Counsel for Finance and Development, Deputy Chief of Staff for Mayor Richard M. Daley, and Commissioner of the Department of Planning and Development.

Prior to joining the Obama's, Jarrett served as Director of Corporate Not For Profit Boards Including: Chairman University Of Chicago, Chicago Medical Board Trustee and the Vice Chair of the University Of Chicago Board Of Trustees as well as the 2018 Olympic Committee.

She was also Director for the local initiative Support Corporation, The Joyce Foundation, and a Trustee of the Museum of Science and Industry, the very same museum of Science and Industry that received a 26.8 million dollar grant for a new projection theater (I'm not quite sure what this is) but that 26.8 million? It came from none other than Jeff Carl Jone's stimulus plan.

This is the property of Ms. Valarie managed, on June 27th, 2008 The Boston Globe described in it like this;

"The squat brick building of Grove Parc Plaza in a dense neighborhood that Barack Obama represented for eight years as a State Senator holds 504 apartments subsidized by the federal government for people who can't afford to live anywhere else.

But it's not safe to live here. About 99 of the units are vacant, many rendered "uninhabitable" by the unified problems such as collapsed roofs and fire damage.

Mice scamper through the halls. Battered mail boxes hang open. Sewage backup in the kitchen sinks. In 2006, federal inspectors graded the condition of the complex an 11 on a 100 scale- a score so bad the buildings now face demolition.

Grove Parc has become a symbol for some in Chicago of broader failures of giving public funds to private companies to build and manage affordable housing- an approach strongly backed by Obama as the best replacement for public housing." "This is OBAMA'S IDEA OF THE BEST REPLACEMENT FOR PUBLIC HOUSING.Btw THIS IS WHY THE OBAMA'S FLEW TO COPENHAGEN WITH OPRAH, THIS PRIMIERS ABODE? Well, this building with the "open air modern "Obama administration energy saving design?"

It's smack dab in the middle of the proposed 2016 Olympic Village.

51  Ralph (Raum) Emanuel

- Ralf "Raven" Emanuel AKA Rahm "Dead Fish Emanuel" another of Obama's advisors called chief of staff for the Obama administration said in a press conference about the recent swine flu fiasco "never let a Good crisis go to waste". Another disciple of the Saul Alinsky method.

52  Other Obama Friends and people to watch out for:

- 1 Cass Sunstein Regulatory Czar > Once stated that "Economic crisis can be used to usher socialism into the United States" and in his book "The second Bill of Rights" remarked that historic economic crisis provided the most promising conditions for the emergence of socialism in the U.S., he also wrote in the same book that the U.S. should move in the direction of Socialism but the county's "white Majority" opposes welfare, since such programs largely would benefit minorities, especially blacks and Hispanics." He openly argues for bringing socialism to the United States and even lends support to Communism. He also believes in "regulating hunting out of existence" and Openly told a Harvard Audience in 2007, " we ought to ban hunting. In 2002 he said, "The law should impose further regulation on hunting, scientific experiments, entertainment, and above all farming to ensure against unnecessary animal suffering, it's easy to imagine a set of initiatives here, There are so many possibilities...."

John Holdren Czar of Science and Technology> in 1971 he co authored a paper on Global ecology suggesting, " some form of ecocatastrophe, if not thermonuclear war, seems almost certain to overtake us before the end of the century" A book Holdren co-authored in 1977 reportedly contains this statement: Population control laws, even including laws requiring compulsory abortion, could be sustained under the existing constitution."

Kevin Jennings Founder and former Executive Director for GLSEN (Gay Lesbian Straight Education Network) and was appointed to serve as the Assistant Deputy Secretary for the office of Safe and Drug Free Schools- Safe Schools Czar. Jennings and the organization he founded have been the leaders in promoting a pro homosexual agenda in American Schools, beginning in Kindergarten. His positions are extreme, And his rhetoric harsh and hate filled.

Jennings has stated, "I can envision a day when straight people say, "so what if your promoting homosexuality?" "That is our mission from this day forward."

- 2 Carol Browner whitehouse Climate Czar She was made Czar so that her powers could be more sweeping than they would be in any single official appointment, and so that she could avoid going through a senate confirmation process.

Since leaving the Clinton Administration, she has moved even further left, and has become one of the 14 members of the Socialist International Commission for a sustainable World Society." She was the lead negotiator in deciding the new auto emissions standards. According to the New York times, Browner quietly Orchestrated private discussions from the white house with auto industry officials, and once commented when asked about it "we put nothing in writing, EVER!"

Obama and the Woods Fund of Chicago

By Richard Henry Lee

Barack Obama served on the board of directors of Woods Fund of Chicago from 1993 to 2001. During that time, the tax exempt foundation made some interesting grants, including one to Obama's church, Trinity United Church of Christ, headed by Rev. Jeremiah Wright at the time. Grants were also made to ACORN, a left wing voter registration group and to a partnership for constructing low income housing. The fund also used Northern Trust for financial services, which is the same company that provided Obama his 2005 mortgage.

"[t]he Local Schools Councils...are important both for guiding educational improvement and as a means of strengthening America's democratic traditions."

57 Annenberg Challenge

The attached proposal is titled: "Smart Schools/Smart Kids: A proposal to the Annenberg Challenge to Create the Chicago School Reform Collaborative."

The six year old "radical reform effort" that Ayers/Hallett refer to, of course, was the establishment of local school councils ("LSC") as a new center of power in the Chicago Public Schools ("CPS") in 1988, in the wake of a 1987 teachers' strike that proved unpopular to parents and reform activists in both community groups and business groups.

The Alliance for Better Chicago Schools ("ABCs") was formed then to push for the LSC idea in the Illinois state legislature. Active in the reform effort was Bill Ayers, Barack Obama's Developing Communities Project, and Chicago United, a group of businessmen concerned about race and education issues founded by Bill Ayers' father, Tom Ayers, once CEO of the large Chicago utility, Commonwealth Edison (now Exelon). The DCP was a member of the ABCs, Chicago United was a leading force in organizing the ABCs and Bill Ayers would later chair the ABCs which continued after the school reform bill was passed in late 1988 as an oversight group.

By the early 1990s there was controversy about the LSC idea from many directions. At one point the 1988 law was actually declared unconstitutional and it had to be restructured.

62  FBI Undercover Agent Speaks About Weather Undergrounds plans to "Eliminate Millions of Americans"

Some of the troops we just mentioned, the Generals and Admirals being fast tracked to incredibly high places, judges, University Presidents, Senators, Congressmen, Supreme Court Justices, the wheels of the well oiled machine always turning, each thing directly affecting another which affects another, and all to further the plan and facilitate one outcome or another. Eyewitness to the Ayers Revolution

An interview with Weathermen insider/FBI informant Larry Grathwohl on whether to believe Obama when it comes to Bill Ayers.

October 28, 2008 - by Bob Owens

When Bill Ayers and Bernadine Dohrn led the domestic terrorist group Weather Underground in 1969, a chance meeting led Army veteran Larry Grathwohl into joining the group. Grathwohl served as a courier, running messages between the group's leadership (called the "Weather Bureau") and individual cells that were to carry out attacks.

63  Ron Bloom

people who understood Obama weren't at all surprised that he would pick a manufacturing czar such as Ron Bloom who said:

Generally speaking, we get the joke. We know that the free market is nonsense. We know that the whole point is to game the system, to beat the market or at least find someone who will pay you a lot of money, 'cause they're convinced that there is a free lunch. We know this is largely about power, that it's an adults only no limit game. We kind of agree with Mao that political power comes largely from the barrel of a gun. And we get it that if you want a friend you should get a dog."

If this agenda doesn't terrify you, it is because you are ignorant. Just take a look at the giant black hole that Illinois state union employees and their unsustainable benefit schemes have put the taxpayers in. And that same black hole is probably in your state, too.

Acorn and voting

In 1970, one of George Wiley's protégés, Wade Rathke -- like Bill Ayers, a member of the radical Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) -- was sent to found the Arkansas Community Organizations for Reform Now. While NWRO had made a good start, it alone couldn't accomplish the Cloward-Piven goals. Rathke's group broadened the offensive to include a wide array of low income "rights." Shortly thereafter they changed "Arkansas" to "Association of" and ACORN went nationwide.

77 Acorn, Immigration and The Mortgage Crisis

The Radical Left's offensive to promote illegal immigration is "Cloward-Piven on steroids." ACORN is at the forefront of this movement as well, and was a leading organization among a broad coalition of radical groups, including Soros' Open Society Institute, the Service Employees International Union (ACORN founder Wade Rathke also runs a SEIU chapter), and others, that became the Coalition for Comprehensive Immigration Reform. CCIR fortunately failed to gain passage for the 2007 illegal immigrant amnesty bill, but its goals have not changed.

90 Frank Marshall Davis

Communist writer and poet (1905-1987)

Friend of Paul Robeson

Mentor to a young Barack Obama in the 1970s

Dedicated supporter of the Soviet Union and enemy of America

Frank Marshall Davis (1905-1987) was a black poet and writer (he wrote for the Honolulu Record, a Communist newspaper), and a known member of the Soviet-controlled Communist Party USA (CPUSA). Accuracy in Media editor Cliff Kincaid has done important investigative work detailing Davis' Communist ties.

Davis' good friend Paul Robeson, who himself was a dedicated Stalinist, persuaded him in 1948 to move to Honolulu, Hawaii. In 1950 Edward Berman, a member of the NAACP's Honolulu branch, testified to the House Un-American Activities Committee (HUAC) that Davis had "sneaked" into local NAACP meetings to "propagandize" the organization's members about America's "racial problems," with "the avowed intent and purpose of converting it into a front for the Stalinist line."

Davis was identified unequivocally as a CPUSA member in a 1951 report of the Commission on Subversive Activities to the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii (CSALTH), which, along with HUAC, also charged that Davis was affiliated with a number of communist-front organizations. According to Max Friedman, a former undercover member of several Communist-controlled "anti-war" groups, Davis testified in 1956 before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee and took the Fifth Amendment when asked about his Communist Party membership.

In the 1970s Davis met a teenage Barack Obama and his family, who also lived in Hawaii. Davis soon became the young man's mentor and advisor.

In his 1995 book, Dreams From My Father, Obama writes about Davis but does not reveal the latter's full name, identifying him only as "a poet named Frank" -- a man with much "hard-earned knowledge" who had known "some modest notoriety once" and was "a contemporary of Richard Wright and Langston Hughes during his years in Chicago," but was now "pushing eighty." (Several sources -- including Professor Gerald Horne, Dr. Kathryn Takara, and libertarian writer Trevor Loudon -- have confirmed that Obama's "Frank" was indeed Frank Marshall Davis.)

Obama in his book recounts how, just prior to heading off to Occidental College in 1979, he spent some time with "Frank and his old Black Power dashiki self." Says Obama, "Frank" told him that college was merely "an advanced degree in compromise," and cautioned him not to "start believing what they tell you about equal opportunity and the American way and all that sh--."

Davis also told Obama, "What I'm trying to tell you is you [white] grandma's right to be scared.... She understands that black people have a reason to hate. That's just how it is. For your sake, I wish it were otherwise. But it's not. So you might as well get used to it."

Davis penned many poems during his lifetime. One of them, titled "To the Red Army," hailed the Soviet revolution and condemned the "rich industrialists" in Washington DC and London who allegedly wanted Hitler and the Nazis to "wipe Communism from the globe."

Davis also wrote poems deriding traditional Christianity. In some of these compositions, Davis called Christ "a Dixie Nigger" who was nothing more than "another New White Hope"; he derided Christians as hypocrites "who buy righteousness like groceries"; and he spoke of Africans being killed with a "Christian gun" by missionaries following "the religion of Sweet Jesus," rather than by a spear.

Another Davis poem, "Peace Quiz for America," includes the following lines:

Uncle Sam, Uncle Sam
 Why did you send me against Axis foes
 In the death-kissed foxholes
 Of New Guinea and Europe
 Without shielding my back
 From the sniping Dixie lynchers
 In the jungles of Texas and Florida?

"My family is more important to me than my party," declared Senator Zell Miller, a Georgia Democrat, as he spoke from the podium of the Republican National Convention on September 1. "There is but one man to whom I am willing to entrust their future and that man's name is George Bush." [\[1\]](#)

Many Democrats howled in outrage at Miller's "betrayal" - former President Jimmy Carter in particular.
